Phoenix, AZ 85013

Register today for this 6 hour course to learn the latest in coding and network with colleagues. E-mail your coding questions to codequest@aaoo.org by January 24, 2012 and we will try to incorporate your topics into the seminar. You may claim CME, AAPC and/or JCAHPO credits for the completion of this course.

Target Audience - This intermediate course is designed for physicians, billing/coding staff, and technicians with more than two year of experience in coding and documentation.

Course Agenda

The morning session will include 3 hours of comprehensive education on ICD-10 to provide the following:

- Step-by-step instructions on how physician and technician documentation must change
- Education on what coders and billers need to watch for to assure that claims are submitted accurately
- Learn what administrators/office managers need to know to assure a smooth transition and obtain coding compliance
- Provide practical application and real world examples to assume proficiency with IDC-10.

The afternoon session will address:

- What is new in 2012 in regards to CPT ICD-9, PQRS, E-Prescribing and Audit Update
- Exams scenarios
- Modifier challenge
- Complex surgical cases from all specialties involving multiple procedures during the same session
- Complications during global period: Are they payable or not?
- Testing services: What are billable together and what aren't?
- What's wrong with this picture: Learn to solve coding quandaries.

Top 5 Reasons to Attend

- Prepare and know what to expect before ICD-10 starts
